Chatter Matters

January 2011

Dear Kate,

"I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers..."
Ephesians 1:16.

It is a joy to be associated with all the great people of Dayspring Walk to Emmaus. Every time we gather as a body of believers, I see the joy of the Lord on so many faces. When we meet at the different churches for our Gatherings each month, it is good to rekindle friendships and enjoy delicious food and great fellowship.

The strength of a community of believers is evident in our connection through our prayer chain. A network of God's people ready and willing to intercede is just a phone call or email away.

Thanks for all you do to help others grow deeper in their relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived, what God has prepared for those who love Him."

DeColores,
Chap Cromley

Introducing Three of Your New Board Members

The newest class of board members will serve from 2011 through 2013. We will feature half of them in this issue and the other half in the next. These individuals were asked to answer three questions so that you can get to know them a little better. As a matter of interest, they did not create the questions, but graciously agreed to answer them. Our hope is that you will find this to be an interesting read with a serious underlying message.

Enjoy meeting your new community leaders...
