MAY GATHERING
May 16, 2020

We will be hosting a Virtual meeting on our new Facebook page. For those who don't have a Facebook, the youtube link will be emailed out at the end of the virtual meeting.

People Who Bless Dayspring Walk to Emmaus

There are people who are working behind the "scenes" everyday for the Dayspring Community. We are sometimes unaware of them or what they do. We are very thankful for these people

The first one is Ed Boulineau who is our Prayer Coordinator and is not new to this position. When someone has a prayer request or prayer request praise, Ed is the one to contact. He is the person who sends out the emails. If you need to contact him there are 2 ways in which to do this. One is to send it to dayspringwalktoemmaus@gmail.com or call 912-764-3744 for him to send the email out. We are so thankful for Ed and his willingness to be a Willing Servant!

Humble yourselves, therefore under God's mighty hand, that He may lift you up in due time.

1 Peter 5:16

The second one is Shawn Collins who is working with the Dayspring Walk to Emmaus website. The website gives information about the Community and also about the upcoming events. We appreciate Shawn working on this vital part of Community.

Pilgrims Progress

But as for me, I watching hope for the Lord, I wait for God my Savior; God will hear me.
Micah 7:7

On March 15, 2018, I started a journey that would affect me in so many ways. I really didn't know what to expect upon arrival, but by the end of the weekend there was no questions as to what God wanted me to get out of this journey. You see, I thought I was doing everything right as a Christian, but was quickly shown that I was very selfish in my walk. Everything was about what I wanted God to do for me and my family. This was the turning point for me. Through the agape shown during my walk, I came to realize that it was just as important to do for others as to have them do for me.

During my walk, I had so many breakthroughs and convictions regarding relationships, my past, my present and future. God really showed up and disciplined me like the loving Father he is. I cried, laughed, and left it all there at the altar. I felt relief for the first time in forever. God showed me that he was there for me, but I had to do some soul searching and reach out to Him and listen for his directions. I felt as if I could just float away. My spirit was renewed, praise God!

Since my walk, I feel so much happier and at peace. I still have the same job, house, husband, friends, etc. So what is different? The answer to this question is my mindset and a stronger relationship with God! I have learned that it is not what you have that is important, but what you do with it. I realized that God has blessed me with this life and I should be thankful for every part of it, the good and the bad. Yes, I am human, and fall short at times and have envy, jealousy, and wants, but I try to quickly erase these thoughts from my mind when they occur. I have to remind myself that I have exactly what God wants me to have and this should be sufficient for me. I have been able to bless other pilgrims on this journey and it never gets old hearing their stories on the ride back home. It really blesses the soul to be able to do for others. I try to spread the agape love that was shown to me everywhere I go. I seem to, now, search for opportunities to do such. I will forever be grateful for the ones that had a part in my journey.

For nothing is impossible with God.
 Luke 1:37
