Chatter Matters

The Chatter Matters is a monthly newsletter produced by the Dayspring community. It will contain the latest information on our community, Emmaus Walk, Journey, and Chrysalis news, testimonials, notes from the Board of Directors, monthly events, and other updates. To save funds, we send the bulk of the newsletters electronically using email. In this case, BE SURE TO add dayspringwalktoemmaus@gmail.com to your list of personal contacts. This should prevent the newsletters from going to your spam or junk folder. It is best to use a personal email as some worksites do not allow email from other businesses. However, if you do not have email, you have only to ask and we will mail yours using the US Postal Service. Gayle McKenzie is currently our Communications Chair and produces the newsletter. You can find her information on the website should you need to contact her in any way.

Praises and Prayer Requests

The Dayspring community is complete with Prayer Warriors. We believe in staying connected with God and each other through the power of prayer. Should you have any praises or prayer concerns to share, please do not hesitate to email them to dayspringwalktoemmaus@gmail.com so that they can be sent to everyone. Ed Boulineau is currently our Prayer Coordinator and serves as a subcommittee of worship. You can find his information of the website should you need to contact him in any way. Please send the request to dayspringwalktoemmaus@gmail.com or call him at 912 764 3744. He is always prompt when he receives a request.

Being a rebellious teen, I gave my mom and dad a run for their money: smoking, drinking and becoming pregnant and placing that child for adoption – all by the age of 16. Given my teen years, I moved into my young adult years carrying a lot of “baggage.” The biggest and by far the heaviest piece of baggage I carried was unforgiveness of myself. I had given all the sin of my rebellious teen years to Christ and asked for His forgiveness and I knew that He had been faithful to forgive me but I could not forgive myself.

My walk changed all of that. Those 72 hours helped me to come to a place where I understood that my inability to forgive myself was a rejection of God’s justice and His Love. By not forgiving myself I was acting as my own judge. I was telling Christ that His redeeming work on the cross wasn’t sufficient.

I am so grateful for the work that God did in my heart and my life that weekend because it has allowed me to live my fourth day for Him. Before the walk the weight of unforgiveness had created such a burden on me that I wasn’t able to serve Him effectively. The weight of unforgiveness had created a situation where I doubted myself and the talents God had given me to serve Him. The weight had taken my joy and interfered with me living out the abundant life He came to give me. I remember leaving the venue where my walk was held that Sunday evening feeling freer than I had in many years. No longer was I weighted down by unforgiveness instead I was empowered to move into my fourth day understanding in a fresh way that His grace is more than sufficient for me.

I have been walking in my fourth day for 29 years and there have been times when I have struggled with forgiving myself but the Holy Spirit gently reminds me how heavy and debilitating that weight of unforgiveness of self is and then I hear that still small voice of God saying: “I’m counting on you,” and I reply “and I’m counting on You.” As we move through our fourth day, as we face our own struggles let’s never forget that Christ is counting on us and we are counting on Christ.
