Chatter Matters

April 2013

The Spring walks have come to a close. If you were able to come to the campground then you experienced first hand the wonder and majesty of our Lord. For those that were not with us in person we felt your presence in prayer. To top off the month we celebrated the resurrection of our Savior, which reinforces our hope!

What a way to start the month of April....we have the PIO Party this Friday and Sustaining the Spirit next Tuesday to call these walks to a close. All of the details are below.

Please be in prayer as we begin to prepare for the June Chrysallis walks and believe it or not servant applications for the fall Emmaus walks will be due May 1. A link to servant applications for both Chrysallis and Emmaus can be found below.

I hope that this newsletter finds you and your family enjoying all of the love, mercy and grace that Christ has offered to us!

DeColores!

Dayspring Walk to Emmaus #71

Dennis' walk with the cross

Dayspring Emmaus community member Dennis Barnard is on his annual walk across Georgia with the cross. He started in Dothan, AL and is traveling east along Highway 84 toward his home in Glennville, Georgia. Dennis estimates that it will take around 3 weeks to complete this journey. Several of our Emmaus brothers are planning to be with Dennis most of the time. If anyone wants to go out and spend a day or just a few hours please do. Please be in prayer for Dennis and the others with him. Pray for their physical state, safety, and that God will place the ones that He desires in their path.

The Pio Party will be held at Tattnall Campgrounds this FRIDAY, April 5, 2013 at 7:00pm. Members of Walks 82 and 83 will not have to cook for this event. The community will be cooking for you, so don't worry about bringing a dish. Community please remember to bring a little extra so that we have enough to feed everyone!

Childcare is always provided for FREE at monthly gatherings. As a reminder, please wear your name tag to all Emmaus and Chrysalis events, wear your cross, and also bring your worship book.

We will enjoy a great meal, wonderful fellowship and an awesome Fourth Day talk. Hope to see you there!

Get all the applications and other info you need any time of the day or night. The Dayspring Website www.dayspringwalktoemmaus.com
