March 2017

Spring Walks Are Almost Here!

The teams are trained, the Pilgrims are ready, and the calendar is moving on toward the Spring Walks. Keep the Pilgrims and Willing Servants in your daily prayers.

Table and baked agape are always needed and appreciated for both Walks. We look forward to seeing you at the Community events at the Campground. May the Pilgrims see Jesus in each of us.

Men's Walk March 9-12,2017

Spiritual Director David Hibberts

The Send Off Song

"Behold what Manner of Love"

Women's Walk March 16-19, 2017
Lay Director Cheri Wagner
Spiritual Director Brandon Williams

For the men.....

"Behold what manner of love the Father has given unto us.

Behold what manner of love the Father has given unto us,
That we should be called the sons of God,
That we should be called the sons of God."
(Repeat all)

"When He was at the table with them, He took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, and He disappeared from their sight. They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

(Luke 24:30-32

Prayer Vigils

Ways you Can Support the Upcoming Walks

If you are like many of us, your walk was special in many ways. That just didn't happen. There were people who made table Agape, food Agape, attended send off, candle light and closing. There were also people who prayed. They may have signed up for the Prayer Vigils or prayed at home. Please participate in the above activities so that these Pilgrims will feel and see the face of Jesus. You may also go to:

For the Women.....

Praying the Prayer Vigil

"Behold what manner of love the Father has given unto us.

Behold what manner of love the Father has given unto us,

That we should be called the daughters of God,
That we should be called the daughters of God."

(Repeat all)

On the Road to Emmaus

"Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him.

He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

Luke 24:13-18

Here is a wonderful outline to follow when you find yourself at a lack of words while praying for the Walk...

Begin by asking God to clear your mind from all outside distractions. Place your thoughts and your spirit with the people and the event you have come to ask Him to bless.

Be silent for a few moments and begin to feel His presence with you. Pray as if you are talking to your best friend-you are! Ask Him to bless with His spirit the buildings, the grounds, and all things used to bring those present to an awareness of Him.

Pray for the lay director, if not by name, by duty. He/She must walk in His spirit for anything he/she may be called upon to solve.

Pray for the assistant lay directors in much the same way. Pray for the spiritual director, that he/she may truly be an instrument of His spirit.

Pray for the assistant spiritual directors in much the same way. Pray for the board representative, that he/she may have the courage to keep the purity of the event and not let personalities keep him/her from doing what he/she promised God he/she would do.

Pray for the speakers. Pray that they: remember Whom they represent, lay down self, and glorify God.

Pray for the talks-for the message they give, for the giver, and for those who hear, that they may hear according to their need.

Pray for the musicians, that their music may bring God's message and soothe troubled souls.

Pray for the pilgrims; the ones who can't leave their thoughts behind, the ones uneasy in that setting, the ones who can't sleep, the ones that feel forced to come, the ones looking for magic and not miracles, the ones who are open and receiving, and for all conditions known only to God.

Pray for the fun and the fellowship-that it may warm hearts and keep focused on God. Pray for the cooks and all who minister in unrecognized ways.

Pray for the team assistants that they do not tire. Pray for their renewed strength.

Pray for the table leaders and assistant table leaders. Pray that their subtle guidance and emptying of self will lead their pilgrims directly to Christ.

Pray for all the agape gifts, for all the hands that made them and for the blessings they bring.

Pray for the sponsors.

Pray for special times of the weekend-you know what they are.

And, lastly, give it all to our Lord and Friend, who sees and knows, asking for His blessing and presence with everyone connected, not only those mentioned, but for families and for changes in the church and community.

End by praising and thanking God for the opportunity He has given you to talk to Him on behalf of His children.

Amen.

"Pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

~1 Thessalonians 5:17-18

Cheri Wagner
Dayspring Walk to Emmaus,
Walk #49

I am thankful, humbled and honored to have the opportunity to serve the Emmaus Community for Walk #99. The friendships and accountability partners I have formed due to the community have changed my life and strengthened my walk with the Lord. I pray Walk #99 will do the same for each Pilgrim.

It has been simply amazing to see how our loving Father works in knitting together the team and the Pilgrims. He is in control and all will be exactly as He designs it. Please join me in praying that the team and the community follow the plan He has designed for these Pilgrims.

As we draw closer to the weekends - it is with great anticipation that we all wait to see the work He will do. Thank you Father for always being there.

A Note from Bryan Wiggins
Lay Director, Men's Walk #98

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope." (Jeremiah 29:11) These are the words that have carried me in my life since my walk in the fall of 2008 and Christ has given me a future and a hope every day since. As the upcoming walk approaches I reflect back at how large an impact the Emmaus Community has had and continues to have on my life. I am excited about the work that will be done in the Pilgrim's hearts during the upcoming Men's and Women's walks. I would like to thank all members of the Dayspring Community for the opportunity to lead the men's walk. Looking back the journey that I have been on has been surreal and impacted by so many.

Please be in prayer for the upcoming walks. God has blessed the Men's walk with willing servants and I cannot wait to see what God has in store for pilgrims and servants alike. See you at send at the campground!

Walk #87

In 10 words or less tell about yourself.
Retired wife, mother, grandmother, Sunday School teacher, choir member, PPRC chair

What book are you currently reading?
Fervent by Priscilla Shirer (a book about prayer)

What is your favorite religious time of year or holiday, and why does it mean so much?
Christmas is the story of love. God gave us his Son because of love. We emulate that love in our gift giving to those we love.

Michelle Bostwick Mathis
Dayspring Walk to Emmaus, #76

In ten words or less, tell about yourself.
I achieve to be a good and faithful servant.

What is your favorite Bible verse and why?
Isaiah 41:10 "So do not fear; for I am with you: do not be dismayed, for I am your God: I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." When I feel angry and afraid of things I can not control, I remember that God is with me and that gives me strength.

What is your favorite religious holiday or time of year and why does it mean so much to you?
I have a hard time choosing between Thanksgiving and Christmas as my favorite holiday. I love them both so much. I am definitely a family oriented person and these two holidays both center around family. I feel as if I should say Christmas but for some reason I always tell people my family holiday is Thanksgiving. Usually my entire family gathers together to cook and just enjoy spending time together. My heart feels so full and I am so thankful for the blessings that God has given me.

Thad Harvey
Aldersgate Chrysalis #23

In ten words or less tell us about yourself.

I love God and love, loving others.

What is your favorite Bible verse and why?

Romans 8:37-39. With God we are never called to just get by or endure, but we are told we will be more than conquerors. When we share God's love with others, there is nothing that can ever cause that to stop, not even our death. The enduring legacy I have the chance to leave is how I let God love others through me. That love will never end.

What is your favorite time of year or holiday?

I love Holy Week. It is a time of intense focus on what Christ's death and resurrection means in my life, and how I can die more to myself, and let Christ's love reign in me more.
