Board Member Notes

What does Emmaus mean to me?

We have all been asked that question in one form or another. The funny thing is, it means something different to each of us. No matter how similar our journeys with Christ are, they are all different and unique.

A couple of weekends ago we had our first team meeting for the upcoming walks. (Boy, it's been a long time) The what does Emmaus mean to me question was asked of us like it always is. Each member gave their answer and they were all genuine and honest, however, one brother said something that sent a spirit of conviction over me. He made the statement that if we are coming to these weekends for a feeling, or a bonding time with fellow believers, then we need to examine ourselves.

Man, what a punch in the gut! We as believers have been equipped with all that we need to live a life filled with the spirit and love. Now don't get me wrong, these weekends and the gatherings are definitely a vital part of keeping our cups full and running over, but they shouldn't be the only place we get filled. What are we allowing into our everyday lives that's keeping us from experiencing God like we do on Emmaus weekends? I personally can name several things that I need to address.

Remember back to your walk, what did the board chair say during their talk at the end of the weekend? The Walk to Emmaus is in no way to take the place of the local Church. We can build the same type of "community" within our Churches and work places. This world is hungry for what only Christ can offer. Now, more than ever, we should be living our 4th days in a spirit of love and grace, being the hands and feet of Christ wherever we are.

As we approach the first set of walks in over a year, let us be in prayer for the Holy Spirit to be at work in the life of each pilgrim that will attend. We also pray that the Holy Spirit will be at work in each willing servant and every member of the Dayspring community.

Lay Director Notes

When did I go on the Walk to Emmaus? I attended Walk 79#, Table of Hannah in Fall 2012.

What has Emmaus meant to me? My Walk to Emmaus was a renewal and a return home to my Savior Jesus Christ. The weekend brought me much needed healing and focus which prepared me for the beginning of a whole new personal relationship with Christ. What an amazing journey it has been. I have worked most of the walks since my Walk, as well as serving on the Dayspring Emmaus Board. Previously, I would not have imagined the amazing blessings God provides when we serve on a walk either in the background or the conference room. The excitement, renewal and bonding with new and old friends who share a love for Christ is a continuing reminder of God's grace. Each Walk is a new opportunity show the Pilgrims the face of Jesus as we love and serve them.

I am humbled and excited to serve as the Lay Director for Walk #111. As a pilgrim I was the recipient to so much love and kindness. As a servant in several different roles I have been amazed at the different perspectives from which we are able to view the Emmaus Walk process. As Lay Director I am blessed to see the process come full circle in providing a path for believers to renew or deepen their walk with Christ. During the COVID-19 pandemic God has significantly blessed and taught me in much needed personal weaknesses of patience, trust and persistence as I planned and had cancel three different Walks. Now with the Fall 2021 Walk, myself, the team and I believe the pilgrims are even more ready to see the face of Jesus at Tattnall Campground. We serve an awesome God and His timing for this Walk is perfect.

We have an amazing team of servants for Walk 111, both in the background and in the conference room. The team's willingness and excitement to serve is so appreciated and provides yet another example of the central focus of the Emmaus Community family who love Christ and love sharing His love with others. At this point, we are all excited to meet and get to know our special pilgrims who will attend Walk #111. Your prayers for this team and the pilgrims are so appreciated. Knowing you are out there praying before and during the Walks is a strong foundation for the weekend. Thank you for the opportunity to serve Christ, the pilgrims and the Dayspring Emmaus Community. As we often say, we know and trust that God will show up and show out on that special place we call Tattnall Campground. With much love and peace to each of you.
