Board Member Notes

What does Emmaus mean to me?

What the Emmaus means to me is hard to describe in just a few words. It is endless love for one another, Agape, caring for others and serving others. People you don't even know are praying for you, serving behind the scenes for you and working with you to help you see Jesus! The Emmaus community is just like having one big happy family. It's a place where I feel closer to God because his spirit is everywhere. This isn't just a campground its HOLY ground to me. When you have gone, on the Walk and don't you say you don't feel anything then our wood is wet, and you need to get in God's word.

The Emmaus has taught me how to be a better servant for the Lord. The Agape love and serving in different rolls, I would have never thought I could do. It has truly taken me out of my confront zone. I guess I am doing what God wants me to do. Being on the Board is one way God wants me to serve, knowing He is the only one that could give me the courage to do the things I do. I love serving the Lord in all kinds of ways, from cleaning toilets, mopping floors, and praying with other members. The Emmaus taught me that the world hasn't changed a bit, but that Kip has.

I love the Emmaus Community because of the way it touches people and serves people in so many ways. As we the Emmaus Community get ready for the Walk to start again, we need to be in prayer for the pilgrims, servants, and their families. Pray for Brother David and Sister Kim for their leadership in theses walks. Pray that God shows up which we know He will and shows out. We pray that theses pilgrims get what we got and even more. May God Bless each and every one of you.
Decolores!
