Board Member Notes

Hi Emmaus Friends,

Phyllis Smith
Dayspring Walk to Emmaus #14
Table of Elizabeth

Emmaus has been a part of my life since 1995. I went on the walk to deepen my relationship with Christ. In turn, God showed me how to better serve my church. He isn't finished with me yet. My walk with the Lord is an ongoing journey of fellowship with Him. Over the years, I have made so many lifelong friends!

I now am a part of the Dayspring Board serving in Agape.

These are a few things Emmaus means to me.

E- Everlasting experiences change me to better see just how much God loves ME.

M- Materialistic things is what I gave up at Dying Moments on my Walk. It's all about relationships with Christ and others.

M- Making Christian Friends that can support and help me be accountable on this journey through reunion groups, gatherings, and Emmaus, Journey/Chrysalis weekends is a gift.

A- Agape love, shown in a way that makes it easy to go out and share with all, is one of the top experiences of what this weekend means to me!

U- Unique experience for each of us as God wants to reveal his love to us.

S- Selflessness is what I learned. It's not about me. It's about Jesus dying on that cross for me. To God be the glory for the great things He has done.

DeColores,
Phyllis Smith
Agape
