"You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of

"Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation" (Psalm 95:1)

Someone once wrote: "Music is what feelings sound like," and for me, this is the case. Music is the ONE thing that has always been a constant need for me in my life. As I've grown older, I also believe it is how I communicate best with the Lord. No matter what I'm feeling, there is always a song to sing to him and whenever I'm happy, sad, lonely, and needing him the most, he provides the perfect words back to me in a song I need to hear at the time.

your house and on
your gates."
Deuteronomy 6:5-9

I have been involved in church my entire life, my grandfather is a Southern Baptist Preacher and we were at church anytime the doors were open. I believe this is where my love for Jesus and music became one. Nothing is better than "Victory in Jesus" or "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder" in a small church on Homecoming. It reminds me that my fate is set and that no matter what; I know what waits for me. So when I decided to go back on the walk with my husband (I had been to Coastal GA Chrysalis some 10 odd years ago), I was one of those who didn't believe they had a reason to be there. Fortunately, "10,000 Reasons" was given to me as to why I was there and needed to be. My walk was shallow and left plenty to be desired. But "In Christ Alone," he offered me "Amazing Grace," and all have to do is "Trust in You" Lord.

I love the music that is Emmaus and this past weekend singing "A New World is Coming" reminds me that each day is a new day and how thankful I am for the love shown in this community. I am so thankful that music has been an outlet and a peace maker for me over the years. I like to think that music helps create memories...kind of like a soundtrack for your life. Ginny Owens constantly reminds me to listen in "If You Want Me To," and being able to do something I love, whether it be in the choir or by singing a solo, that will possibly touch someone in some way makes me feel like I'm doing my part. And though its a small part, it makes me happy to share my gift and God's gift through song and "It is Well With My Soul."

"Honor your father
and your mother,
which is the first
commandment with
promise: that your
days may be well
with you and you
may live long on the earth."
Ephesians 6:2-3

What is your favorite Bible verse and why.

Luke 5, 27&28 has always spoke to my heart. It says, After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax booth. And he said to him "Follow me". And leaving everything, he rose and followed him.

How powerful is that. These verses are a constant reminder to do as He commands without question or hesitation. A simple command from someone that Matthew had probably never meet but with those two simple words, "follow me", completely changes Matthew's life.

What is your favorite religious holiday or time of year and why does it mean so much to you?

I have a hard time deciding between Christmas and Easter. On one hand you have the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. On the other you have the death and resurrection of that same Lord and Savior. If I had to choose one though it would be the Easter season. I like the reminders that I see in nature during this time. I see it in the pedals of a blooming dogwood tree and in the fresh sprouts of a pine tree. It reminds me of the nails that were driven into his hands and feet and the cross that he hung from, and for what reason? To die for me, a lowly sinner.
